

Empower care teams and improve health outcomes with modern workplace solutions

Deliver better customer experiences and bottom-line results with Valorem's frontline worker solutions.

Healthcare workers are the backbone of patient care

The first to interact with patients

The first to operationalize patient and operational strategies

The first to deliver treatment

They also face enormous pressure and workloads

300%
increase in telehealth in 2020<sup>2</sup>

80%
of physicians are at capacity or overextended<sup>3</sup>

78%
of physicians sometimes, often, or always experience feelings of burnout<sup>3</sup>

For every 1 hour spent with patients, nearly 2 hours is spent on documentation<sup>3</sup>

There's a lack of technology to optimize care services

54%
of surveyed healthcare professionals feel well-prepared to do their job<sup>4</sup>

56%
of surveyed healthcare professionals said that existing technology platforms waste time that could be spent helping patients<sup>5</sup>

65%
of surveyed healthcare professionals said their employers need to invest in better technology for a future health crisis<sup>5</sup>

78%
of health executives believe that the stakes for innovation have never been higher<sup>6</sup>

With the right technology comes optimal care
